

Celebrating monthly supporter Ian Rambarran's leadership at Klinedinst PC and his investment in CASA Sacramento

CASA Sacramento is grateful for the long-time support of attorney Ian Rambarran, whose commitment to youth in foster care has helped strengthen our mission over the years. Since 2020, Ian has been a consistent supporter of CASA Sacramento through monthly giving, and we deeply appreciate his investment in the young people we serve.

We are also proud to congratulate Ian on his recent promotion to Chief Executive Officer of Klinedinst PC in January. Ian serves as CEO and Shareholder in Klinedinst's Sacramento office, where he works with corporate clients on a wide range of matters, including business, financial services, employment, real estate, transportation, construction, and intellectual property issues.

Throughout his legal career, Ian has represented clients in complex business and commercial disputes, including high-exposure litigation involving financial institutions, real estate, and technology-related matters. His leadership and professional accomplishments make this promotion especially well deserved.

We are thankful for Ian's investment in CASA Sacramento's mission and proud to celebrate this exciting milestone. Congratulations, Ian, on your well-deserved promotion and continued success.

"It is both an honor and a privilege to serve as a business leader in the Sacramento community and to help ensure that families and children have the support they need to truly thrive," says Mr. Rambarran. "CASA is an essential thread in a system that can often be complex and challenging, and Klinedinst is proud to stand as a resource and partner in helping pave the way toward stability, opportunity, and lasting success."
